

Dear Parents,

In the past 11 years, Dionysus Theatre has been the only inclusive theatre in the state of Texas. Bringing together actors with disabilities along with those who are able-bodied, Dionysus has entertained, empowered, enlightened and educated people across the state. Through our main stage shows, classes, touring troupe and youth theatre, Dionysus Theatre truly “changes lives...one act at a time.”

I am attaching a class registration for our upcoming fall semester. These 10 week classes are more than just “fun and games” . Our theatre program reinforces life skill lessons, socialization, self-confidence and team building – all in a creative gentle setting.

We meet every Tuesdays from 7-9 p.m., at our location: 5601 S. Braeswood Houston, TX. 77096 inside the Joe Frank Theatre. The cost is $125.00 and we have limited scholarships available. Some of our students, during their ARD meetings can receive elective credits for our classes. Another wonderful bonus.

I hope you will consider enrolling our son or daughter in our classes this fall. Also, our main stage production, which begins October 18th-30th, is a wonderful experience for the whole family.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to call me at 713.728.0041.

Sincerely

Deborah Nowinski
